For the convenience of bidders, current copies of the publication with payments deleted will be posted outside the office of the County Treasurer for several days before the sale. No individually deleted copies will be available.

Each parcel will be initially offered for the amount of taxes, advertising, penalty interest and costs. Each parcel will be subject to general bidding and it will be sold to that person "who shall further pay the largest amount in cash in excess of said taxes, penalty interest and costs."

It is the bidder's responsibility to know what is purchased. The description and the tax amount of each parcel will be read only once by the County Treasurer. All successful bids are final. No changes in, or cancellation of parcels purchased can be made after the parcel is struck off.
